

*non scholae sed vitae discimus.*¹

Revision

Next week's test will involve all the vocabulary and grammar you have learnt so far. Get out your indexed note book and make sure you know every noun in every case and number you have learned so far as well as your present tense verbs.

¹ “We learn for life not for school.” Seneca. Notice the dative case of scholae and vitae – “for school” and “for life.” remember the line from the little song “To or for the DATIVE gives...” The words “disciple” and “discipline” are related to the verb discere.
