

*Simul Justus et Peccator!*¹

Five Solae 4: Solo Christo

You should easily be able to translate this week's *solā*².

For this week's Bible lesson read this article:
<https://www.gotquestions.org/solo-Christo.html>

Exercise:

Look up the following references. Each one gives us a title of Christ. Write the title beside the relevant reference:

Revelation 19:16 _____

Hebrews 4:14 _____

Galatians 3:13 _____

1 Timothy 2:5 _____

Answers on the next page.

1 Both justified and a sinner. Martin Luther's pithy summary of a Christian's state

2 If you are wondering why the ending is different it is because Christus is not a first declension noun like mensa but belongs to the second declension. The second declension has a different pattern of endings. The ablative of Christus is not Christae but Christo.

Answers:

Jesus alone is the King of kings (Revelation 19:16).
our High Priest (Hebrews 4:14).
our Redeemer (Galatians 3:13)
the sole Mediator between God and man (1 Timothy 2:5).
