

*Culpam poena premit comes.*¹

Vocabulary Test

You have done a year's worth of Latin! Very well done.

Here is a mega vocabulary test to see how much you have remembered. Probably best if you do not try to do it all at once! You should be able to mark it using your vocabulary notebook.

Keep up your verb and noun chants at least some of the time in the summer holidays. It would be wonderful if you could visit one of the many remains of Roman Britain during the summer too.

Email me and tell me about it if you do! The picture comes from Bath – maybe you will be able to visit the Roman baths there or Hadrian's Wall or Lullingstone Villa. Find out where the nearest Roman remains are to your own home.

¹ Punishment swiftly follows crime. Horace.

First declension nouns		Second declension Nouns
tunica		hortus
via		amicus
silva		medicus
sagitta		oculus
hasta		servus
ancilla		deus
filia		donum
puella		bellum
mensa		liber
insula		animus
aqua		populus
pugna		proelium
Roma		praefectus
hora		socius
fama		Romanus
regina		legatus
fortuna		filius
ianua		gladius
villa
fabula
femina
diligentia
ira
copiae
agricola
poeta
stola
gloria
ripa
luna
turba
disciplina
praeda
dea

Verbs

“Little words”

adiuvare		Tunc
laudare		sed
portare		et
vocare		est
clamare		in
excitare		ad
intrare		non
vocare		me
laborare		vero
amare		ego
pugnare		ut
aedificare		quoque
dare lacrimare		sicut
orare		super
simulare		etiam
invitare		si
iudicare		quod
expectare		de
habitare		enim
sperare		cum
ambulare		ecce
liberare		autem
negare		cras
putare		apud
occupare		erat
servare		hoc
spectare		nihil
salutare		ubi
vulnerare		aut
nuntiare		iam
ornare		ut
superare		quando
parare		an...an...an
oppugnare		inter
culpare		sicut
desparare		et... et

Adjectives and pronouns

laetus
magnus
altus
benignus
aeger
barbarus
bonus
malus
meus
tuus
suus
vester
medius
ignavus
parvus
extremus
iustus
contentus
solus	