

Year 2 Term 1 Week 3 Day 1
Grammar: More Nouns of the Third Declension

Latin Without Tears pages 108-110 introduce more nouns of the third declension. Pes, pedis, can go into your indexed notebook. Make sure you put your own translations into correct English. Continue to do all your chants regularly.

Bible examples:

et si pes tuus te scandalizat amputa illum; bonum est tibi claudum introire in vitam aeternam, quam duos pedes habentem, mitti in gehennam ignis inextinguibilis Mark 9:45

Jesus is speaking here. There are so many words here that you know or can guess that I think you will be able to translate this. Ignis is a third declension noun that can go into your notebook. It is related to the English word “ignite” and the geological term “igneous.” Read <https://www.gotquestions.org/Gehenna.html> to find out where gehennam was and what it stood for.

non det in commotionem pedem tuum neque dormitet qui custodit te Psalm 121:3

Det here means roughly “he will let.” Neque means “neither” or “nor” and is a useful little word that should go into your indexed notebook. Dormitet you will guess if you know the second line of the little French round, Frere Jaques. The English word “custody” will give you the verb custodit.

Check your “guesslations” by looking them up.
